FROM THE AUTHOR

This month, we will be addressing a major component of Christian daily living for anyone saved by Christ. One of the clearest ways people recognize you as a child of God is through the empowerment of the Holy Spirit in your life. In this passage, Jesus is speaking specifically to the disciples, but the same principle holds for every believer: the responsibility to carry out the miraculous work of God comes only after the outpouring of the Holy Spirit.

The Spirit empowers us in the sense that He gives us the responsibility to carry out the miraculous work of God. In Jesus's life, God proved Him to be the Messiah through the fulfilment of prophecy, and empowered Him through the Holy Spirit to work miracles in His humble state as a man on earth. Jesus was able to cast out demons and do every good work that stood against the kingdom of Satan.

This month, I want us to challenge ourselves to ask and pray to be filled with the Holy Spirit, so that we can go on to do exploits for the kingdom of God.

Starting the Month with the Holy Spirit

OCTOBER

01

BIBLE PASSAGE:

Acts 1:4-8

SUMMARY

The Christian faith is practical and demonstrable in every situation and every sphere of life.

Having experienced the Lord's salvation of our souls, believers are committed into the care of the Holy Spirit, with the hope of receiving His power (enablement) to be His witnesses everywhere.

This October, therefore, we will be focusing on the Holy Spirit and how He equips us to represent Christ as the Light of the world and the Salt of the earth. Are you prepared?

PRAYER POINT

Lord, help me to purge my heart, rearrange my physical space, and reschedule my activities to create an environment suitable for You to encounter me in a lasting manner.

PRACTICAL STEPS:

Deliberately identify and deal with things you must let go of, to soak in the Spirit.

If You Love Jesus, Obey Him

OCTOBER

02

BIBLE PASSAGE:

John 14:1-4, 15-18

SUMMARY

Whatever a dying man says requires close attention. So, when Jesus knew He was about to complete His earthly work, He began making weighty statements that demand our attention.

“If you love me, keep my commandments,” Jesus said. He followed it with: “And I will pray the Father, and he shall give you another Comforter, that he may abide with you for ever.”

Beloved, you can start your day by checking whether your love for God makes you obedient to His will. If not, you can still correct your ways to avoid a life void of the promised Holy Spirit.

PRAYER POINT

Lord, I love You, but I want You to help me love You more.

PRACTICAL STEPS:

Now, go ahead and dig deeper into your life to identify hidden areas of disobedience to God.

Preparing to Imbibe the Spirit of Truth

OCTOBER

03

BIBLE PASSAGE:

John 14:17-18; 16:13

SUMMARY

You will recall reading this same passage yesterday. But today, the Lord is redirecting your attention to the Spirit of Truth — the Holy Spirit whom unbelievers and worldly people cannot relate to.

I congratulate you as you begin to warm up for a close walk with the Holy Spirit, who will ensure you know the truth amid all the lies out there in the world. He has dwelt WITH you, and now it is time for Him to dwell IN you.

PRAYER POINT

Lord, help me to open up my heart for You to dwell in.

PRACTICAL STEPS:

Deliberately keep reminding yourself that your heart is open to God.

Jesus Also Relied on the Holy Spirit

OCTOBER

04

BIBLE PASSAGE:

Acts 1:1-3; 10:38

SUMMARY

Before enjoying the gift and power of the Holy Spirit, you first need to build a personal relationship with Him. This is what you have done over the first three days of the month.

On this fourth day, today's text reveals that Jesus also relied on that same Holy Spirit.

Are you surprised that Jesus had to issue instructions to His disciples through the Holy Spirit? If Jesus relied on the Holy Spirit, why wouldn't you?

PRAYER POINT

Lord, let me rely on the Holy Spirit even for what I consider the simplest of what I have lined up for today.

PRACTICAL STEPS:

Be thoughtful of your decisions today; submit them all to the Holy Spirit.

Faithful Is He Who Promised

OCTOBER

05

BIBLE PASSAGE:

Acts 1:4-5

SUMMARY

The coming of the Holy Spirit to walk with you is a promise made by God through Jesus. And how do you judge the sincerity of a promise, if not by the sincerity of the one who made it?

God is not a liar, and based on His faithfulness and integrity — which cannot be found among men — be assured that He will keep His promise.

Are you eager to meet and develop a close relationship with the Holy Spirit? God will keep His promise.

PRAYER POINT

Lord, I know You are a promise-keeper. You will do exactly what You promised — and to me is the promise of the Holy Spirit.

PRACTICAL STEPS:

Walk boldly through the day, rejoicing in God's promise. Let people notice what's different about you.

The Holy Spirit Is Not Coming Empty-Handed

OCTOBER

06

BIBLE PASSAGE:

Acts 1:6-8

SUMMARY

While certain things about God's plan and move may not be revealed to you, one thing is very clear from today's text: "ye shall receive power, after that the Holy Ghost is come upon you."

This affirms the coming of the Holy Spirit and His power upon you. You have the blessed assurance that He isn't coming to you empty-handed.

Are you ready to walk in power?

PRAYER POINT

Holy Spirit, I thank You, because Your coming will not make me a lesser version of myself.

PRACTICAL STEPS:

Did anyone notice your joy yesterday? Why not repeat your joyful walk around town today?

Empowered to Be His Witness

OCTOBER

07

BIBLE PASSAGE:

Acts 1:8, 20-22

SUMMARY

It's Day 7, and what a beautiful day to know that the Holy Spirit wants you empowered to be Jesus's sincere and bold witness to a world that doubts His existence, lordship, and saving grace.

As a witness, you will always speak up for Christ. You will also live rightly, so the world can experience the beauty He has made of you.

Without His power, standing as a witness in a conflicting world can be difficult. But He's got your back.

PRAYER POINT

I declare that I am Holy Spirit-empowered to stand for Jesus in every circumstance and to overcome every temptation.

PRACTICAL STEPS:

Look out for opportunities requiring you to stand for Jesus today; there, stand tall in the power of the Holy Spirit.

Let the Witnessing Start from Your Immediate Environment

OCTOBER

08

BIBLE PASSAGE:

Acts 1:8; Mark 6:1-6

SUMMARY

Let us push a little further from yesterday's study.

Again, from Acts 1:8, the Lord expects you to carry out your witnessing responsibility starting from Jerusalem, and from there spread out to places and people far from home.

For you, Jerusalem means your immediate environment — your family, school, workplace, and so on. This means the people closest to you should be the first to experience the blessedness of the new person you have become, and the message your mouth and lifestyle now proclaim. You may, however, meet resistance due to overfamiliarity.

PRAYER POINT

Lord, help me overcome the resistance built up at home against Your Spirit in me.

PRACTICAL STEPS:

Endeavour to share your new-life experience with the people around you. Don't be afraid!

The Spirit Loves Where Unity Thrives

OCTOBER

09

BIBLE PASSAGE:

Acts 1:12-14; 2:1-4

SUMMARY

The day of Pentecost was when the promised Holy Spirit suddenly came upon the disciples in the Upper Room. They were men and women, young and old, of different professions and backgrounds — but despite their differences, they sat as one in expectation of God's power.

Unity is thus an important value we should cherish among brethren. Though we are many, we are one body in Christ. The Holy Spirit loves the places, and the people, where unity thrives.

PRAYER POINT

Lord, let me be at peace with people, despite our differences.

PRACTICAL STEPS:

Perhaps there's someone you need to resolve your differences with today. Go ahead!

Speaking in Tongues: An Experience Created by the Holy Spirit

OCTOBER

10

BIBLE PASSAGE:

Acts 2:4; 1 Cor. 14:1-2

SUMMARY

One of the things you receive from the Holy Spirit is the ability to speak in new tongues. This experience may have been misused today, but it began genuinely, and it is still deeply revered by many.

The capability to pray in unknown tongues comes from the Holy Spirit, not from any man. There is, therefore, no school to learn it and no man to imitate. It is an experience the Holy Spirit creates Himself.

PRAYER POINT

Do you sincerely desire this experience? If yes, discuss it with the Holy Spirit.

PRACTICAL STEPS:

Consciously allow your inner man to keep praying as you go about your day.

What About Speaking the Languages of Professions and Careers

OCTOBER

11

BIBLE PASSAGE:

Acts 2:5-8; 2 Tim. 2:15

SUMMARY

It's getting more interesting on this eleventh day, as we see the Holy Spirit give different languages. This time, it goes beyond the languages of nations to include the languages of professions and careers.

In a way, and in a different dimension, each profession is like its own nation, with its own distinct language. The tech world, for instance, has its own language, different from that of the medical world — and so does the engineering world.

PRAYER POINT

You cannot be pushed aside when you clearly understand the language of your profession. Pray to become a person of real substance in your field.

PRACTICAL STEPS:

Beyond prayer, decide to study and master the language of your field. Don't just pray — study.

Be Bold: God Has Not Given You the Spirit of Fear

OCTOBER

12

BIBLE PASSAGE:

Acts 2:14-18; Luke 22:54-62

SUMMARY

Peter had always appeared bold, until he stood among those antagonising Christ. Suddenly, his bravery melted, and he denied Jesus three times in a row.

But immediately after the Pentecost experience, he regained the boldness to speak up for Christ openly. He wasn't just a mere witness anymore; he had become a fearless one.

The Holy Spirit will do this, and more, for you as you walk with Him in holiness and faithfulness.

PRAYER POINT

Help me to stand up for Jesus everywhere it matters, for God has not given me the spirit of fear, but of power, love, and a sound mind (2 Tim. 1:7).

PRACTICAL STEPS:

Now that your boldness is restored, walk with your head up as a fearless witness.

Light Defeats Darkness Simply by Shining

OCTOBER

13

BIBLE PASSAGE:

Acts 2:12-18, 37-41

SUMMARY

We live in a world where Christ and all He stands for are deliberately — though sometimes ignorantly — maligned. Social media, in particular, is full of such errors, which we must correct in love.

The most effective, yet quietest way light “fights” darkness is simply to shine. Once light shines, darkness dissolves.

Peter didn't fight the crowd over their misconceptions and false accusations; he simply explained the phenomenon scripturally. By the time he was done, three thousand souls had been converted (Acts 2:41). Oh, what a witness!

PRAYER POINT

Lord, take my social media platforms; let me fill them with light and truth.

PRACTICAL STEPS:

Delete some of your old social media posts and post fresh ones, as you've prayed.

Building Bridges or Barriers

OCTOBER

14

BIBLE PASSAGE:

Acts 2:42-47;
John 17:9-11, 20-21

SUMMARY

Did you notice the warm reception given to the converts by the older believers? They were welcomed into a fellowship that left no room for superiority or status competition. They had everything in common.

This rare unity unsettled the outside world, for such oneness was strange to them. The world is used to building class, status, and other divides — things that should have no place in Christendom.

The power to bond comes from the Holy Spirit, and you must enjoy it too. Be good to people, regardless of age or class. Show the world that Christians are children of the same Father.

PRAYER POINT

Lord, make me a loving and accommodating person.

PRACTICAL STEPS:

Choose to be deliberately kind to one person in your church, school, or workplace today.

What Hour Is It?

OCTOBER

15

BIBLE PASSAGE:

Acts 3:1-10

SUMMARY

You've read how Peter and John continued to represent Christ. This story begins with being at the right place at the right time. They were on their way to the temple at the hour of prayer — they would have missed the lame man entirely had they gone somewhere else at that hour.

Do you recognise what hour it is in your own timeline? How do you spend your hour of study, prayer, and worship? Do you play around during the hour of prayer? Where do you usually go at the hour of fellowship?

PRAYER POINT

Lord, order my steps to be at the right place at the right time.

PRACTICAL STEPS:

Purposefully monitor how you spend your time and which places you attend.

Right Place at the Right Time

OCTOBER

16

BIBLE PASSAGE:

2 Kings 8:1-6

SUMMARY

We will return to the story of Peter and John, as we read yesterday. But first, let us establish the importance of being at the right place at the right time.

If the woman seeking the return of her property had carelessly gone elsewhere, or let something unimportant distract her, she would not have arrived at the palace at the very moment Gehazi was telling the king her story.

Her request was granted with ease, because she walked in exactly when the king was expressing interest in her situation.

PRAYER POINT

May I not miss the moment the Holy Spirit is discussing my matter before God, urging me to pray at that moment.

PRACTICAL STEPS:

How do you rate your time management? It is key to your development.

He Didn't Meet Ordinary Men After All

OCTOBER

17

BIBLE PASSAGE:

Acts 3:1-10

SUMMARY

Welcome back to the story of Peter and John.

When the lame man saw both witnesses, he saw nothing remarkable in them — they looked entirely ordinary. And when he heard they had no silver and no gold, he must have felt he had wasted his time looking up to them.

But it didn't take long for his story to change. While money could have kept him lame and begging, the power in the name of Jesus healed him. He hadn't met ordinary men after all.

PRAYER POINT

Lord, I may look ordinary, but I'm not. No true child of God is empty. As a witness, empower me to solve problems.

PRACTICAL STEPS:

Purge yourself of whatever puffs you up without adding any real impact.

It Pays to Have a Partner

OCTOBER

18

BIBLE PASSAGE:

Acts 3:1; Luke 10:1-2;
Eccl. 4:9-10

SUMMARY

One critical lesson from the scriptures you've read is that it pays to have a good partner. Two are better than one.

Neither Peter nor John may have been able to see the miracle through had one walked without the other. Jesus sent His disciples out in twos: when one is down, the other pulls them back up. Oh, the blessing of good partnership!

Do you have a study or prayer partner? Is there a trusted friend beside you? Are you a good partner to someone else?

PRAYER POINT

Lord, send me a good partner, and make me one in return. Let me not walk alone.

PRACTICAL STEPS:

Identify and remove whatever is making you an island. You can't succeed in isolation.

It's Too Late, I've Already Been With Jesus

OCTOBER

19

BIBLE PASSAGE:

Acts 4:1-13

SUMMARY

Being God's child comes with challenges from the world. The council did everything to intimidate and silence Peter and John, but standing together, they held their ground.

Interestingly, when the council saw their Holy Spirit-inspired boldness, they concluded: "THEY HAD BEEN WITH JESUS." It was already too late — they had been with Jesus long before their apprehension.

People know who has been with Jesus. Being with Him brings a transformation that cannot be hidden. Can your behaviour be traced back to Jesus? How will others know you've been with Him, after today's study?

PRAYER POINT

Lord, let it be so visible that I've been with You, and that I am always with You.

PRACTICAL STEPS:

In the spirit of being a witness, let everything you say or do today be linked back to Jesus.

Did You Say Lying Is Not a Big Deal?

OCTOBER

20

BIBLE PASSAGE:

Acts 5:1-11

SUMMARY

Telling lies is becoming the norm these days. Many of God's children no longer see it as anything wrong. We lie on our phones, to our friends, our parents, our employers, our government — we have built our world on a network of lies. Lord, have mercy!

This couple, Ananias and Sapphira, didn't see lying as a big deal, until they lied to Peter — and, indirectly, to the Holy Spirit. Of course, they paid for it.

What is my own disposition toward telling lies? Can God be lied to? It is impossible!

PRAYER POINT

Lord, let me not be foolish enough to think I can lie without You being bothered.

PRACTICAL STEPS:

Be deliberate about speaking the truth always.
The truth sets free.

Making Jesus Go Viral

OCTOBER

21

BIBLE PASSAGE:

Acts 5:25-32

SUMMARY

You've likely seen trending videos on social media — you wake up, and suddenly everywhere is talking about the same clip. We say it has “gone viral.” Like a virus, it spreads uncontrollably.

The Lord's witnesses gave the world a taste of Jesus in their own time, too — and made Him so viral and trending that they were accused of filling Jerusalem with their doctrine (Acts 5:28).

This was possible because, in their respective fields, they never shut down on Jesus. They practically lived for Him to be known. Some even died for it!

PRAYER POINT

Lord, help me play my role until You go viral. To this cause, I lend my platforms.

PRACTICAL STEPS:

Check whether you are playing a meaningful role in filling the spaces around you — and within your reach — with Jesus.

Not When It Is From God

OCTOBER

22

BIBLE PASSAGE:

Acts 5:33-40

SUMMARY

Keeping the name of Jesus flying will usually draw opposition; this has always been the case.

But I want to tell you today that joining the train of His witnesses is nothing you will regret, nor is it an exercise in futility. Why? Because it is of the Lord. The assignment is godly.

Gamaliel told the council they could do nothing about God's move — and he was right. The move was of God, and that is why, to this day, Christianity keeps growing despite every effort to kill it. Again I say to you: IT IS OF GOD.

PRAYER POINT

Lord, help me to identify all that is of You, and to align myself rightly with it.

PRACTICAL STEPS:

While you keep praying, continue building on the truth you already know is of God.

Fished Out by the Need of the Hour

OCTOBER

23

BIBLE PASSAGE:

Acts 6:1-7

SUMMARY

Because the fields we are called to differ, the Holy Spirit empowers each of us differently, though for the same purpose.

As believers spread across and beyond the Jewish lands, the need for more service-minded disciples became obvious. No one knew how to manage the growing need, until Peter stepped in.

Peter recognised that God had already, quietly, positioned the right men for the task within the church — they only needed to be identified. Eventually, seven deacons who had until then been largely overlooked came forward. A need drew them out.

PRAYER POINT

Pray for the right situation to unveil God's deposits in you. Are you ready?

PRACTICAL STEPS:

Take stock of what you carry inside, before the opportunity to use it arrives.

Perhaps This Is Too Insignificant to Involve the Holy Spirit

OCTOBER

24

BIBLE PASSAGE:

Acts 6:1-7

SUMMARY

Is there anything too small to involve the Holy Spirit in? Let's take a quick second look at yesterday's reading.

You would be right to think that Peter, as an elder and pillar of the church, needed the Holy Spirit to function in his office — but why would serving tables require being filled with the Holy Spirit?

Are some tasks too insignificant to depend on the Holy Spirit for? No! Every child of God, in every category of service, needs the Holy Spirit. Never conclude that the Holy Spirit is only for certain leaders — He is for both the leader and the led.

PRAYER POINT

Lord, help me never to consider any assignment too small to involve the Holy Spirit in.

PRACTICAL STEPS:

Start by asking the Holy Spirit to choose your outfit for today.

Breaking Confines

OCTOBER

25

BIBLE PASSAGE:

Acts 6:8-15

SUMMARY

It's remarkable how far the Holy Spirit can take a man who depends on Him. In our contemporary world, Stephen might well have stayed confined to serving tables. But the Holy Spirit decided otherwise.

The Holy Spirit in Stephen took him beyond the tables, and performed great wonders and miracles through him. This affirms that the Holy Spirit is no respecter of persons. His accusers could not resist the wisdom and the spirit by which he spoke.

PRAYER POINT

Lord, take me beyond my defined space of expression.

PRACTICAL STEPS:

Check whether you are flexible enough for the Holy Spirit to stretch.

From Serving Tables to the City Top

OCTOBER

26

BIBLE PASSAGE:

Acts 8:4-8

SUMMARY

Another deacon the Holy Spirit stretched beyond man's expectation was Philip. By human expectation, he was meant to serve tables. But the Holy Spirit empowered him to meet the need of the hour.

The church had scattered due to persecution, so his service was rightly realigned. Philip landed in Samaria, and by the time he was done, the whole city was filled with great joy.

He performed miracles and became a notable evangelist, because the Holy Spirit in him could do all things.

PRAYER POINT

Lord, let every barrier restricting me be broken. Let the channels of my spirit open up.

PRACTICAL STEPS:

Your faithfulness in the little will determine whether greater responsibilities from God ever come. Check!

You Can't Buy Him

OCTOBER

27

BIBLE PASSAGE:

Acts 8:18-24

SUMMARY

When money gets involved in the things of God without being handled in the Spirit, it has always brought distraction and adulteration.

When Simon the sorcerer saw that the Holy Spirit came upon people through the laying on of hands, he grew confident — something told him he had enough money to buy the man of God, the Holy Spirit, and His gift. But he was wrong.

The best that money will get you is a counterfeit. Money itself is not evil, but loving it more than God is the root of all evil (1 Tim. 6:10).

PRAYER POINT

Lord, let me not overrate the value of money, especially in Your assignments.

PRACTICAL STEPS:

You may need to identify where you have set God aside to pursue money. Repent!

What He Said Is as Important as What He's Saying

OCTOBER

28

BIBLE PASSAGE:

Acts 8:26-40

SUMMARY

Great servants of God have learned to get used to God Himself, not merely to His assignments for them. They know what God said, but even more, they long to know what God is saying now.

Philip was thriving in the Samaritan city. But before he had fully established himself there, the Holy Spirit — who directs the show — sent him to a desert. The evangelist known for a city-wide crusade was now speaking with a single soul in the desert.

What men consider a demotion is not the same in the sight of the Holy Spirit. He chooses where we operate.

PRAYER POINT

Lord, let me not disregard what You are saying now, because of what You have already said.

Can you say you've heard Him speaking to you recently? If not, slow down.

Kicking Against Christ in Love?

OCTOBER

29

BIBLE PASSAGE:

Acts 9:1-9

SUMMARY

Paul had a rough start. He didn't begin as a pillar of faith.

He was traditional and religious, and unwilling to bend toward any new move of God. He killed for what he believed, until he met the Lord — and suddenly, what he had believed exposed him to death.

On the road to Damascus, he was confronted by the very Lord he thought he was serving, and that changed everything. All along, he had been kicking against Christ, yet believed he loved God. What an irony!

PRAYER POINT

Lord, do not leave me to what I think is right. I may be completely wrong.

Try taking certain things back to Jesus, to cross-check them with Him.

His Gift, My Power to Witness

OCTOBER

30

BIBLE PASSAGE:

1 Cor. 12:1-7

SUMMARY

Will you believe that your gift is the Holy Spirit's power to witness effectively and efficiently for Christ?

A spiritual gift is not restricted to the high-sounding displays we've known in church. Simply put, as long as it is from the Holy Spirit, it is a spiritual gift.

Your ability to solve mathematical equations can be a spiritual gift, just as another person's ability to dissect the Bible can be. As long as it comes from the Holy Spirit, for the profit of the kingdom, it is your spiritual gift.

PRAYER POINT

Lord, help me to appreciate my gift, and its administration and operation.

PRACTICAL STEPS:

Deliberately list out what you have, and take a break from grieving over what isn't yours to own.

Every Gift Is Vain When Love Is Missing

OCTOBER

31

BIBLE PASSAGE:

1 Cor. 13:1-10; John 3:16

SUMMARY

Let's close this month with the realization that, no matter how highly you rate your gift, it means little when love is missing from your heart.

A gifted person without love for God and humanity will use that gift as a weapon of oppression, promoting selfish desires and denying God His due pleasure.

The abuse of God's gift is inevitable when God's unconditional love is missing. God expressed His love to mankind by giving His only begotten Son. That was sacrificial!

If you love God and mankind, you will appreciate and develop your gift. This will give God pleasure, and equip humanity.

PRAYER POINT

Lord, let Your love grow in me, to guide whatever I do for You and for humanity.

Stop flaunting your gift, and give love a chance.
